Gardens of the Fox Cities Announces New Executive Director

Appleton, WI – Gardens of the Fox Cities announces that Sandy Paulus has accepted the position of Executive Director. Previously, Paulus had served as Development Director for the Gardens.

“We are excited to name Sandy our new Executive Director given her proven track record in development.” said Hans Schultz, President of the Board. “We know she will continue to guide the Gardens in executing and developing our Master Plan.”

Prior to joining the Gardens of the Fox Cities in 2009, Paulus served as Chief Development Officer for Girl Scouts of the Northwestern Great Lakes. She is also a member of Neenah Rotary, the Association of Fundraising Professionals, and has been awarded the professional Certified Fundraising Executive designation.
